THE FRANKLIN MINT

Dear Collector:

It is my great pleasure to tell you that your authentic steel M9 combat knife is ready to be sent to you.

It's The "Operation Desert Storm" Commemorative Knife, and it's being presented by the International Military Archives as an official tribute to the courageous men and women of the United Nations coalition who restored peace and liberty in the Persian Gulf.

It's not a re-creation, but an extraordinary, authentic knife. Affixed to a replica of an M-16 rifle barrel, it is mounted on a dramatic hardwood wall display rack so that you can remove it for inspection and closer examination. The rack, fitted with a solid brass commemorative plaque for permanent identification, also bears the official flags of the members of the allied coalition which joined together to liberate Kuwait.

Upon entering your order for this superb creation, you asked that we bill you in convenient monthly installments. The invoice for your first payment is enclosed. And you can expect to receive your commemorative knife within three to four weeks of our receipt of your check or credit card data.

To receive your "Operation Desert Storm" Commemorative Knife, an heirloom you can pass along with pride to children and grandchildren, be sure to mail your down payment by the due date shown on your invoice.

Sincerely,

Stewart Resnick
Chairman
